NATIONAL WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

What is Women's Ministries?

Assemblies of God National Women's Ministries exists to provide strategies for districts and networks, churches, and individuals to minister to women.

We want to share insights surrounding the specific needs of women, recommend or create resources for small groups, Bible studies, mentoring, and events for women. We want to equip leaders of women to be more effective. We want to provide networking opportunities for more innovative ministry to women, and we want to encourage every Christ-following woman to minister to the women in her life.

Who are the women we minister to?

Many women today don't have a biblical worldview or are overwhelmed by life's issues—or both. The results of these trends can be devastating. Ministry to women has never been more needed than in today's world! Women must receive the hope and healing Jesus offers before they can reach out to others. National Women's Ministries works with Assemblies of God district and network women's leaders, who in turn work with local leaders, to reach women everywhere with this message.

Why should we minister specifically to women?

God created women for relationship. As women, we are designed by God to full a unique calling. When we understand how we are designed, we can fully embrace the unique imprint God has placed on us and on those we serve. We are women designed by God to pursue the full life He offers.
